

Discount Available

for Low-Income West Virginia Customers

You may be eligible for a discount on your electric bills from November 2021 through March 2022 if you receive any of the benefits listed below during these months:

- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
(SSI children under 18 are not eligible)
- WV WORKS
- Food Stamps (You must be 60 years of age or older)

If you currently receive any of these forms of assistance, the West Virginia Department of Health & Human Resources will send you a letter explaining the special reduced rate program and an application to submit to Potomac Edison to receive the discount.

Mail completed application to:

Potomac Edison
20% Discount
5001 NASA Boulevard
Fairmont, WV 26554

DO NOT SEND THE APPLICATION WITH YOUR ELECTRIC BILL.

If you have any questions about qualifying for the program, please call the WV Department of Health & Human Resources at 800-642-8589.

For more information about bill assistance programs or to find out if you may qualify, visit firstenergycorp.com/billassist and click on “Search Assistance Programs.”

Note:

You must reapply each year to receive this discount.